

Mario "Pampo" Mojica Simental, 56, of Pampa, joined his beloved wife, Elmira Duran, in heavenly eternity on Tuesday, December 8, 2020 in Pampa. He was born on May 18, 1964 in Contreras, Durango, Mexico to Miguel Mojica Romero and Maria Rodriguez Simental.

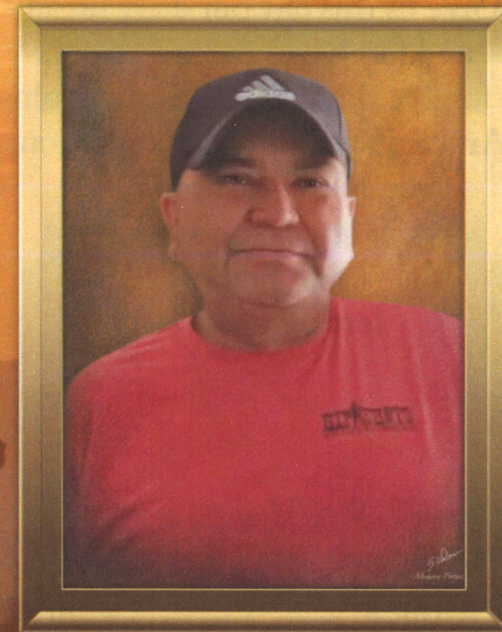

He and his wife, Elmira, moved to Pampa eight years ago; however, he continued to work in construction for Conner Industries in Borger. Pampo was a cowboy at heart and even though he left his ranch between Borger and Fritch, his love for the cowboy lifestyle and his horses never subsided. As somewhat of a Dr. Doolittle, he could talk to animals and even had a singing Rooster. Not only was he a huge animal advocate, but his green thumb was amazing. He has grown palm trees in his home that have practically outgrown the house! Strong, funny, generous, selfless, and dedicated are only a few of the attributes that made Pampo an utterly unique individual. His willingness to help and serve others was visible through his weekly trips as a volunteer to help unload trucks at the Borger Salvation Army. His highest priority was his family as he loved them unconditionally and would do anything he possibly could for them. Pampo's kind soul was an extremely rare attribute that is a rare find these days. No matter what Elmira or her girls encountered in life, Mario was the 1 constant man whom they could depend on.

His amazing generosity, friendship, and uncanny ability to spoil his grandbabies will be so very deeply missed by all who knew him.

Mario was greeted with open arms by his beloved wife, Elmira and his father, Miguel Mojica Romero.

He has left to carry out his legacy two daughters, Monica Camacho and husband Pascual of Dumas, Andrea Silva and husband Julio of Pampa; his mother, Maria Simental of Durango, Mexico; brothers, Miguel Mojica and wife Felicia of Pueblo, CO, Manuel Mojica and wife Silvia of Georgia, Cruz Mojica and wife Celia of Borger, Rafael Mojica and wife Manuela of Durango, Mexico, Pedro Mojica and wife Mireya of Borger, Jesus Mojica of Pueblo, CO; sisters, Petra Mojica of Durango, CO, Mari Mojica of Durango, CO, Olivia Mojica of Durango, CO; six grandchildren, Erica, Lety, Adrianna, Emilee, Juli-Anna, Julio; 6 great-grandchildren, Eliana, Isacc, Leah, Penelope, Adelynn, Anna-Lilly; nephew, Cesar Mojica of Borger and many other loving family members.

Celebration of Life Memorial services are scheduled for 2 pm, Monday, December 14, 2020 at Trinity Fellowship Church with Pastor Mike Borger officiating with burial of his remains at Fairview Cemetery immediately following. The family has entrusted the cremation care of their loved one to Winegeart Funeral Home.

In Loving Memory Of Mario Mojica

Our Father

Who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
forever and ever.

Amen
