I Know You'll Miss This Man

*The Lord spoke to the heavy hearts that stood with hats in hand
"Your sadness pains me deeply and I know you'll miss this man. But, it's true what you've been hearing, Heaven is a real place. That's no small consolation, You should use that fact to face.*

*The emptiness his parting left that seeps into your bones
And draw on it to ease your pain, For he is not alone.
You see, all his friends are up here and all his loved ones, too, 'Cause it wouldn't be a heaven without each one of you.*

*And heaven for a Cowboy is just what you might expect,
It's horses that need tunin' up and heifers that need checked.
It's long rides with a purpose and a code that lights the way
And a satisfying reason to get up every day.*

*It's the ranch he's always dreamed of and never knew he'd find.
And if you think about it, you can see it in your mind.
Him, leanin' in the saddle with his ol' hat on his head,
Contentment set up his face like blankets on a bed.*

*The leather creaks a little as he shifts there in the seat.
The bit chains give a jingle when his pony switches feet.
And you somehow get the feelin' that he's sittin' on a throne
A'gazin out on paradise just like it was his own.*

*I can promise you he's happy, though I know you can't pretend You're glad he mad the journey, It's too hard to comprehend.
The earthly way you look at things can never satisfy
Your lack of understanding for the answer to the 'Why?'*

*So, I offer this small comfort to put your grief to rest,
I only take the top hands 'cause my crew's the very best.
And I know it might seem selfish to friends and next of kin
But I needed one more Cowboy and Mickey fit right in."*

*In Loving Memory
Of Mickey Dean Karr*

Mickey Dean Karr, 76 of Pampa, Texas, went home to be with our Lord, Jesus Christ on June 8, 2022. He was born to Eldon and Agnes (Judd) Karr on November 12, 1945 in Borger, Texas.

Mickey has been a lifelong rancher and cowboy, working on multiple ranches and in about any area ranch life would have. Some of his favorite places to work over the years were Smith Cattle Company of Amarillo, Texas where he did spring branding, dragging calves, roping, whether outside doctoring cattle or in the arena, and being on horseback. When younger, he really enjoyed breaking and training horses. He retired 12 years ago and worked part-time for Chisum Ranches in Pampa, Texas thereafter, until he could no longer saddle a horse or do what he loved.

His favorite past-times included attending and competing in ranch rodeos, team roping, rodeos, dancing, singing a jig that he would come up with off the top of his head and being horseback.

He liked to drink cold beer with friends and have long conversations but it didn't hurt his feelings any to talk to total strangers, before long they would no longer be strangers. No matter where they went, his family would tell you he always knew someone, whether it was a lifetime friend he went to grade school with or someone he worked with, there was always someone to talk to. He was known for his honesty and friendliness every where he went.

He married Janet Faulkner in Canadian, Texas on September 24, 1976.

Preceding Mickey in death are his parents, two brothers, Price and Benny Karr and a sister, Patricia Morgan

Surviving Mickey is loving wife, Janet of the home. Children, Brandy Karr and her daughter, Rylee Karr also of the home in Pampa. John Karr and his wife Frances and their 3 children JasLynn, Alisia and Suade of Weatherford, Oklahoma. He also leaves a brother, Bob Karr and wife Linda of Mt. Home, Arkansas. sister-in-Law, Karen Karr of Amarillo, Texas and brother-in-law, Mike Morgan of Panhandle, Texas as well as many nephews, nieces, cousins and many lifelong friends.
