

Charlotte Yvonne Hall, 81 years young of Pampa, Texas, fought with all her might to stay with her precious family until God finally called her name and took her hand on Monday, January 8, 2024, at her home surrounded by so much love. She was born on November 2, 1942, in Litchfield Park, Arizona to John and Hazel Claunch.

After an eight-month courtship, Charlotte and Chuck definitely celebrated Valentine's Day, as they married on February 14, 1959, at the First Christian Church in Pampa. It was the beginning of a 64-year adventure throughout life's ebbs and flows, but with the help of God, they were able to persevere and weather any storm side by side.

Charlotte pursued her college degree and received her RN license allowing her to work at numerous locations over the years such as Highland General Hospital, for Dr. Raymond Hampton, Agape Healthcare, Borger Healthcare, Pampa Regional Medical Center and Coronado Healthcare. Being a nurse and caring for others came so naturally for her and provided an avenue to express her love for people while also fulfilling her desire to please others.

Colorful is a word that could be used to describe Charlotte... not so much because of bright colors, although she was that too, but more so because she was very diverse in her interests and the things that made her happy. She adored playing the piano, especially to worship the Lord, or maybe she simply took in the quiet while oil painting a landscape or reading. Sometimes she found solace in camping and fishing in chaos with her grandbabies, or perhaps she was in the kitchen cooking an amazing meal seasoned with love for family to gather around to watch her favorite Dallas Cowboys.

Always wearing a smile, Charlotte was one of a kind. She was headstrong and feisty as all get out, but on the same token, she had a witty sense of humor! She laughed hard, played hard, and loved hard. None was more protective over their family than she, however, Charlotte knew God came first then family and that's the way she lived her life. She did it her way!

Those who were gathered at Heaven's Gates awaiting her arrival were her parents; a sister, Virginia Welch; brothers, James and Johnny Claunch and her in-laws, Vernon and Francis Hall.

She leaves to grieve her loss yet cherish her many memories her devoted husband, Chuck Hall of Pampa; a son, Kevin Hall and wife Pam of Orlando, FL; two daughters, Rebecca Pamplin and husband Robert, Janet Anguiano and husband Apolo all of Pampa; ten grandchildren, Chris Welch and wife Tika of Fox, OK, Justin Welch of Pampa, Jeremy Hall of Orlando, Chad Long of Amarillo, Jessica Williams and husband Brandon of Orlando, Angela Tessier and husband Kenny of Orlando, Aaron Anguiano and wife Christina of Pampa, Adam Anguiano of Pampa, Johnny Anguiano and wife Danielle of Amarillo, Austin Anguiano of Pampa; fourteen great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandson.
